PART I—CAPITAL GAINS TAX ACT

2. The Capital Gains Tax Act is amended by substituting for section 30, a new section “30”—

Amendment of section 30 of the Capital Gains Tax Act.

“30.—(1) Gains accruing to a person from a disposal by it of Nigerian government securities shall not be chargeable gains under this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to any other applicable law, the gains accruing to a person on disposal of its shares in any Nigerian company registered under the Companies and Allied Matters Act shall be chargeable gains under this Act except where—

(a) the proceeds from such disposal are reinvested within the same year of assessment in the acquisition of shares in the same or other Nigerian companies :

Provided that tax shall accrue proportionately on the portion of the proceeds which are not reinvested in the manner stipulated in this subsection ;

(b) the disposal proceeds, in aggregate, is less than N100,000,000 in any 12 consecutive months, provided that the person making the disposals shall render appropriate returns to the Service on an annual basis ; or

(c) the shares are transferred between an approved Borrower and Lender in a regulated Securities Lending Transaction as defined in the Companies Income Tax Act.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 2 of this Act, the rate of capital gains tax on disposal of shares under this section shall be 10%.

(4) The tax due in respect of a disposal under this section shall be paid for —

(a) individuals, to the relevant tax authority in line with the provisions of the Personal Income Tax Act ; and

(b) companies, to the Federal Inland Revenue Service.

(5) In this section—

“Nigerian government securities” include Nigerian treasury bonds, savings certificates, premium bonds issued under the Savings Bonds and Certificates Act or any other long-term security issued by the Nigerian government ;

“Regulated Securities Lending Transaction” shall have the meaning provided under the Companies Income Tax Act.”

PART II—COMPANIES INCOME TAX ACT

Amendment of section 9
of the Companies
Income Tax
Act.

3. Section 9 of the Companies Income Tax Act is amended by substituting for subsection (1)(d)(ii), a new subsection “(1)(d)(ii)”—

“(ii) dividends includes compensating payments received by a lender from its approved agent or borrower in a Regulated Securities Lending Transaction.”

of section 13
of the Companies
Income Tax
Act.

4. Section 13 of the Companies Income Tax Act is amended by substituting for subsection (2), a new subsection “(2)”—

“(2) The profits of a company other than a Nigerian company from any trade or business shall be deemed to be derived from or taxable in Nigeria where—

(a) that company has a fixed base of business in Nigeria to the extent that the profit is attributable to the fixed base ;

(b) it does not have such a fixed base in Nigeria but habitually operates a trade or business through a person in Nigeria authorised to conduct on its behalf or on behalf of some other companies controlled by it or which have a controlling interest in it; or habitually maintains a stock of goods or merchandise in Nigeria from which deliveries are regularly made by a person on behalf of the company, to the extent that the profit is attributable to the business or trade or activities carried on through that person ;

(c) it transmits, emits or receives signals, sounds, messages, images or data of any kind by cable, radio, electromagnetic systems or any other electronic or wireless apparatus to Nigeria in respect of any activity, including electronic commerce, application store, high frequency trading, electronic data storage, online adverts, participative network platform, online payments and so on, to the extent that the company has significant economic presence in Nigeria and profit can be attributable to such activity ;

(d) that trade or business or activities involves a single contract for surveys, deliveries, installations or construction, the profit from that contract ;

(e) the trade or business comprises the furnishing of technical, management, consultancy or professional services outside of Nigeria to a person resident in Nigeria to the extent that the company has significant economic presence in Nigeria ;

Provided that the withholding tax applicable to the income under this paragraph shall be the final tax on the income of a non-resident recipient who does not otherwise fall within the scope of subsection 2 (a)-(d) ; or

(f) the trade, business or activities is between the company and another person controlled by it or which has a controlling interest in it and conditions are made or imposed between the company and such person in their commercial or financial relations which in the opinion of the Board is deemed to be artificial or fictitious, so much of the profit adjusted by the Board to reflect arm's length transaction.”

5. Substitute for section 16 of the Companies Income Tax Act, a new section “16”—

“16.—(1) An insurance business shall be taxed as—

(a) a general insurance company, whether proprietary or mutual, other than a life insurance company, or

(b) a life insurance company:

Provided that the profits on which tax may be imposed for an insurance business shall be in accordance with section 13 of this Act.

(2) For a general insurance company, the profit on which tax may be imposed, shall be ascertained by taking the gross premium and other income receivable, less reinsurance, and deducting from the balance so arrived at, a reserve for unexpired risks, determined in accordance with subsection (10)(a), of this section.

(3) For a life insurance company, the profits on which tax may be imposed shall be the investment income less the management expenses, including commission.

Substitution
for section
16 of the Companies
Income Tax
Act.

(4) Any amount distributed in any form as dividend from an actuarial revaluation of unexpired risks or from any other revaluation shall be deemed to be part of the total profits of the company for tax purposes.

(5) Not more than three months after an actuarial revaluation of unexpired risks or any other revaluation has taken place, the company shall provide the Service with full particulars of the revaluation carried out, including a copy of the actuary's revaluation certificate.

(6) The profits on which tax may be imposed—

(a) in a general Nigerian insurance company, shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) as though the whole premium and investment incomes of the company were derived from Nigeria ; and

(b) in a Nigerian life insurance company, shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of subsections (3), (4) and (5) as though the whole investment and other incomes were received in Nigeria and all the expenses and other outgoings of the company were incurred in Nigeria.

(7) Investment income for the purpose of taxation of a life insurance company under this section means income derived from investment of shareholders' funds.

(8) Where an insurance company carries on a life class and a general or non-life class insurance business, the funds and books of accounts of one class shall be kept separate from the other as though one class does not relate to the other class, and the annual tax returns of the two classes of insurance businesses shall be made separately.

(9) Each class of insurance shall be assessed separately as "life insurance assessment" and "non-life (other) insurance assessment" and in respect of each class of insurance business where there are more than one type of insurance and in the same class, they form one type of business and shall not be allowed against the income from another type of insurance business but the loss shall be available to be carried forward against profits from the same class of insurance business.

(10) An insurance company, other than a life insurance company, shall be allowed as deductions from its premium the following reserves for tax purposes—

(a) reserve for unexpired risks, calculated on a time apportionment basis of the risks accepted in the year ; and

(b) for outstanding claims and outgoings, an amount equal to the total estimated amount of all outstanding claims and outgoings, provided that any amount not utilised towards settlement of claims and outgoings shall be added to the total profits of the following year.

(11) An insurance company, in respect of its life insurance business shall be allowed the following deductions from its investment incomes and other incomes—

(a) an amount which makes a general reserve and fund equal to the net liabilities on policies in force at the time of an actuarial valuation ;

(b) an amount which is equal to 1% of gross premium earned or 10% of profits (whichever is greater) to a special reserve fund and accommodation until it becomes the amount of the statutory minimum paid-up capital; and

(c) all normal allowable business outgoings.

(12) A reinsurance company shall be allowed the following deductions from its gross profit to be credited to a general reserve fund—

(a) an amount not more than 50% of the gross profits of the reinsurer for the year where the general reserve fund is less than the initial statutory minimum authorised share capital ; or

(b) an amount not more than 25% of the gross profits of the reinsurer for the year, where the fund is equal to or exceeds the initial statutory minimum authorised share capital.

(13) An insurance company that engages the services of an insurance agent, a loss adjuster and an insurance broker shall include in its annual tax returns, a schedule showing the name and address of that agent, loss adjuster and insurance broker, the date their services were employed and terminated, as applicable, and payments made to each such agent, loss adjuster and insurance broker for the period covered by the tax returns.

(14) The provisions on minimum tax in section 33 of this Act shall apply to insurance business, provided that “gross turnover” shall mean “gross premium and other income”, in the case of non-life insurance business and “gross income”, in the case of life insurance business.

(15) For the purpose of subsection (14)—

“gross premium” means the total premiums written, received and receivable, excluding unearned premium and premiums returned to the insured ;

“gross income” means total income earned by a life insurance business including all investment income (excluding franked investment income), fees, commission and income from other assets but excluding premiums received and claims paid by re-insurers ; and

“other income”, for the purposes of non-life insurance businesses means all the income of the non-life insurance business other than gross premium (excluding franked investment income).”

(i) the profits of any company or any corporation established by the law of a State for the purpose of fostering the economic development of that State, not being profits derived from any trade or business carried on by that corporation or from any share or other interest possessed by that corporation in a trade or business in Nigeria carried on by some other person or authority ;

(j) any profits of a company other than a Nigerian company which, but for this paragraph, would be chargeable to tax by reason solely of their being brought into or received in Nigeria ;

(k) dividend, interest, rent, or royalty derived by a company from a country outside Nigeria and brought into Nigeria through Government approved channels, and for the purpose of this subsection, "Government approved channels", means the Central Bank of Nigeria, any bank or other corporate body appointed by the Minister as authorised dealer under the Foreign Exchange (Monitoring and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act or any enactment replacing that Act ;

(l) the interest on deposit accounts of a foreign non-resident company :
Provided that the deposits into the account are transfers wholly of foreign currencies to Nigeria on or after 1 January 1990 through Government approved channels ;

(m) the interest on foreign currency domiciliary account in Nigeria accruing on or after 1 January, 1990 ;

(n) The profits of a small company in a relevant year of assessment :
Provided that such company shall, without prejudice to this exemption, comply with the tax registration and tax return filing stipulations of this Act and be subject to the provisions as regards time of filing, penalties for breach of statutory duties and all other provisions of this Act in all respects during the period which its profits are below the tax paying threshold ;

(o) dividends received from small companies in the manufacturing sector in the first five years of their operations ;

(p) dividend received from investments in wholly export-oriented businesses ;

(q) the profits of any Nigerian company (other than companies engaged in the Upstream, Midstream or Downstream Petroleum operations) in respect of goods exported from Nigeria, if the proceeds of such exports are used for the purchase of raw materials, plant, equipment and spare parts :

Provided that tax shall accrue proportionately on the portion of such proceeds which are not utilised in the manner prescribed ;

(r) the profits of a company whose supplies are exclusively inputs to the manufacturing of products for export, provided that the exporter shall give a certificate of purchase of the inputs of the exportable goods to the seller of the supplies ;

(s) the dividend and rental income received by a real estate investment company on behalf of its shareholders provided that—

(i) a minimum 75% of dividend and rental income is distributed, and

(ii) such distribution is made within 12 months of the end of the financial year in which the dividend or rental income was earned.

(t) the compensating payments, which qualify as dividends under section 9(1)(c) of this Act, received by a lender from its approved agent or a borrower in a Regulated Securities Lending Transaction, such payments are deemed to be franked investment income and shall not be subjected to further tax in the hands of the lender ;

(u) the compensating payments, which qualify as dividends or interest under section 9(1)(c) of this Act, received by an approved agent from a borrower or lender on behalf of a lender or borrower in a Regulated Securities Lending Transaction ; or

(v) the profit of a company established within an export processing zone or free trade zone :

Provided that 100% production of such company is for export otherwise tax shall accrue proportionately on the profits of the company” ; and

(b) substituting for subsection (1A), a new subsection “(1A)”—

“(1A) Nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt from deduction at source, the tax which a company making payments is to deduct under sections 78, 79 or 80 of this Act, such that the provisions of sections 78, 79 and 80 of this Act shall apply to a dividend, interest, rent or royalty paid by a company exempted from tax under subsection (1) (a) to (e), (h) to (l), (n), (p) to (s) and (v).”
